ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

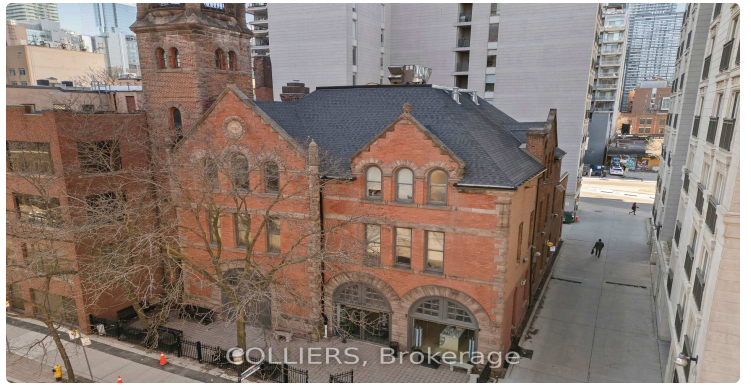

Colliers is pleased to present the opportunity to acquire 110 Lombard Street (the "Property" or the "Building"), a 13,823 square foot (sf), three-storey boutique office building located in Toronto's St. Lawrence neighbourhood. Constructed in 1887, the Property was originally built as the Old Fire Hall, serving as the headquarters of the Toronto Fire Department until 1910. The building features a distinctive architectural presence on the north side of Lombard Street, west of Jarvis Street and south of Queen Street East. Currently leased, a purchaser termination right allows for vacancy as early as May 2027, enabling an investor or owner-occupier to take occupancy for end-use or repositioning in the near term. Extensively renovated in 2011-2012, the Property includes elevator service to all floors, 2 internal staircases, 6 on-site parking spaces accessible via a rear laneway, and a 2,000 sq ft basement for ancillary uses. Recognized as a historic landmark, 110 Lombard is a true generational asset. offering purchasers the opportunity to acquire an irreplaceable property in the heart of Downtown Toronto.
