ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Exceptional space in Summerhill. Set within The Ports, a low-rise condominium with 24-hour concierge, this completely renovated, expansive one-bedroom suite offers an impressive blend of understated luxury, generous proportions and an enviable connection to nature in one of midtown Toronto's most coveted neighbourhoods. Approximately 1,000 square feet of interior living space, south-facing and filled with natural light, the open-concept interior is defined by a spacious living and dining area, a beautifully appointed kitchen and a well-proportioned bedroom offering a quiet, private setting. Every closet features custom organizers, while the oversized walk-in closet offers ample wardrobe space. The four-piece bathroom is finished with high-end Ciot tile throughout and features a large soaker tub. A separate, oversized ensuite laundry room adds an uncommon level of convenience. The Ports offers an exceptional array of private amenities rarely found in the neighbourhood, including beautifully landscaped gardens with gazebos, BBQs and a tennis court- a hidden retreat set within the heart of Summerhill. Residents also have access to a well-equipped gym and private party room. Just beyond the property, David A. Balfour Park provides an immediate connection to nature, with access to ravine and valley trails that extend through the green space and ultimately lead to Evergreen Brick Works, placing an extraordinary network of trails and parkland right at the end of the street. The suite also includes an oversized private locker, ideally positioned beside the parking space and features extensive custom built-in shelving. Just moments from Summerhill subway station and the boutiques, cafés and restaurants of Yonge Street, this exceptional residence offers a rare combination of expansive proportions, elevated finishes, exceptional amenities and an enviable connection to nature in one of midtown Toronto's most established and sought-after neighbourhoods.
