ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

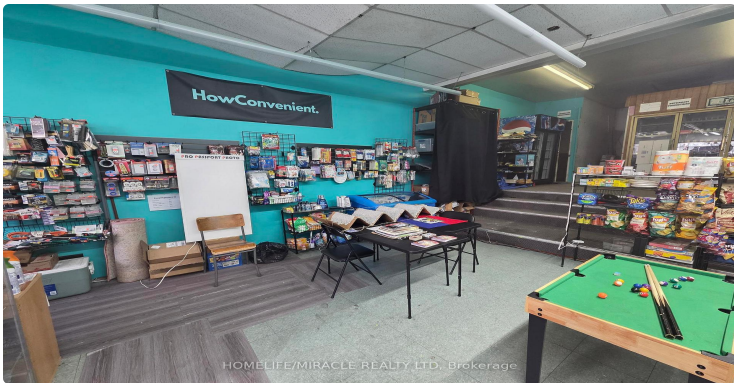

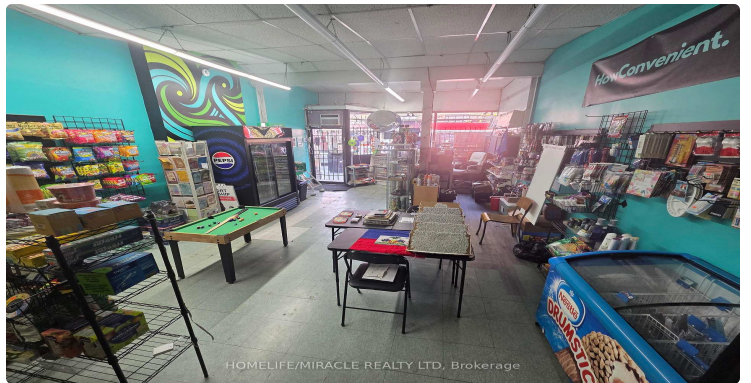

LOCATION..LOCATION..LOCATION...Prime opportunity to own an established convenience store at 927 Bloor St. W., in Toronto's vibrant Bloorcourt Village. Located along a busy commercial corridor with steady pedestrian activity, the store benefits from excellent street exposure and convenient access to the TTC Bloor-Danforth subway line, with Ossington and Dufferin Stations serving the surrounding neighborhood. Surrounded by popular restaurants, cafés, and established retailers, including Shoppers Drug Mart, LCBO, McDonald's, and Long & McQuade, the area attracts local residents, commuters, and shoppers. The business offers everyday essentials, snacks, beverages, convenience products, lotto and passport photo services. An excellent opportunity for an owner-operator to build on the existing business, extend operating hours, expand the product mix, and unlock additional revenue potential in a well-established Toronto retail neighborhood. Current owner doesn't have liquor license but as per sellers but you can get the liquor license and increase your sell by selling alcohol beverages as well to boost sales further.
