ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

A fantastic opportunity awaits at 124 Sackville Street! Situated in Toronto's historic Trefann Court neighbourhood, just north of Corktown, this property is ideally located in a vibrant downtown community that blends historic character with urban convenience. Enjoy the charm of tree-lined residential streets while being just moments from the Distillery District, Corktown Common, local cafes, restaurants, boutique shops, and the many amenities of downtown Toronto. With convenient access to public transit, parks, and the city's core, everything you need is within easy reach.One of the property's highlights is its solarium, offering additional natural light and a versatile space to enjoy throughout the year. Whether you're a first-time buyer looking to enter the downtown Toronto market, an investor seeking long-term potential, or someone with a vision to create a truly personalized home, this is an opportunity worth exploring. Bring your own ideas, put your personal stamp on the property, and create something special in an established neighbourhood with so much to offer.
