ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

A Mid-Century Gem on Beautiful Bromton Drive! Welcome to a home where pride of ownership and timeless mid-century charm shine through! Lovingly maintained by the same family for over 60 years, this delightful detached home is a rare opportunity to own a piece of Scarborough history. Nestled on a beautiful, tree-lined street in an established family-friendly neighbourhood, this home has been thoughtfully cared for by its original owners, and it shows. From the moment you step inside, you'll appreciate the warmth, character, and enduring appeal of this much-loved family home. One of its most charming features is the beautifully preserved, wood-panelled recreation room, a wonderful throwback to mid-century design, offering a cozy and inviting space for family gatherings, entertaining, or simply relaxing. Step outside and discover an exceptionally deep, private backyard offering endless possibilities! Whether you envision lush gardens, outdoor entertaining, a play area, or simply your own peaceful retreat, this generous property provides the space to bring your ideas to life. Adding to the home's versatility is a separate side-door entrance to the finished lower level, offering flexibility for extended family, guests, or additional living space. Car enthusiasts, hobbyists, and those looking for extra storage will especially appreciate the attached garage with a convenient rear overhead pass-through door, providing direct access to the backyard and a second garage. A unique and practical feature with so many possibilities! And the location? Equally appealing! Enjoy the convenience of nearby parks, schools, shopping, transit, and everyday amenities, with Highway 401 and Scarborough Town Centre just minutes away. A cherished family home for over six decades, now ready for its next chapter. Bring your vision, make new memories, and discover the possibilities of this special Bromton Drive property!
