ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Green views change the feeling here. This 3-bedroom, 2-bath Birchcliff condo townhouse pairs a clean, modern interior with the kind of outdoor connection buyers do not always expect from condo living. Warm luxury vinyl flooring runs through a bright main level, where crisp white cabinetry and natural wood tones give the kitchen a calm, contemporary feel. A generous centre island anchors the space, with stainless steel appliances and an easy flow into the living and dining areas.The sightline carries straight toward the outdoors. Large windows and a walkout draw in leafy views, while the private deck and yard create an extension of the home that feels genuinely usable. Morning coffee outside. Dinner with the doors open. A little more green in the everyday.One bedroom sits on the main level, while two more are tucked downstairs for added privacy, including a spacious primary with double closets and ensuite. The bathrooms keep the same clean, minimal language, and owned underground parking plus an owned locker add everyday practicality.Then there is Birchcliff itself. Kingston Road is right nearby for shops, services and transit, while Lake Ontario gives the neighbourhood its quieter edge. Scarborough Crescent Park is a short drive away, with clifftop lake views, open lawns, a playground, splash pad and four tennis courts.It is the kind of east-end home that lets you stay connected to the city while still coming home to something calmer. NOTE: The listing price has been adjusted to reflect the net price after application of the newly introduced HST rebates ***
