ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Welcome to little strip of historic exposed brick storefronts just east of the The JUNCTION -TORONTO area at the intersection of Dupont, Dundas St W and Annette across from the JUNCTION HOUSE condominiums and another new project on the way. The village of West Toronto Junction was founded in 1884 at the intersection of Dundas and Keele Streets, known today as the Junction area where CP - Canadian Pacific Railway east-west main line crosses the CN - Canadian National Railway tracks in the set end of TORONTO. Lovely area, great for many small business uses, perfect for a retail store or services provider for example: nail salons, tattoo shops, flower shops, retail clothing stores, jewelry stores, vintage closing stores, esthetics or book stores and some other options. Monthly rent $4,200 including TMI and water and heat. Tenant to set up own HYDRO. Note usable basement about 1,000sf is included.
